

Resource List

1. Ground Zero for Non-Violent Action: gzcenter.org. Email: info@gzcenter.org. 16159 Clear Creek Rd, NW. ; Poulsbo, WA. 98370. Ground Zero puts out a newsletter one can subscribe to.
2. Washington Against Nuclear Weapons Coalition: wanwcoalition.org. Washington Against Nuclear Weapons (WANW) is a statewide coalition that aims to reduce and eliminate all components of the 1.7 trillion dollar rebuild of the US nuclear weapons arsenal. Our ultimate goal is to prevent nuclear war and abolish nuclear weapons worldwide. They have monthly meetings. Sean Arent, Nuclear Weapons Abolition Program Manager; email: sean@wpsr.org.
3. <https://justworldnews.org/> Just World Books was founded in 2010 by longtime global-affairs writer and researcher Helena Cobban, who continues as our CEO. We publish the work of talented authors who write thought-provoking books across a variety of genres that expand and enrich the discourse in the United States and worldwide on issues of great international concern. Our emphasis is on topics connected with the Middle East and with war and peace issues more broadly.
4. Waging Nonviolence: wagingnonviolence.org. Thorough reporting in this weekly newsletter on nonviolent actions and events; can subscribe through the website.
5. International Peace Institute: <https://www.ipinst.org/>. The International Peace Institute (IPI) is an independent, international not-for-profit think tank dedicated to managing risk and building resilience to promote peace, security, and sustainable development.

6. United States Institute of Peace: <https://www.usip.org/> The United States Institute of Peace is a national, nonpartisan, independent institute, founded by Congress and dedicated to the proposition that a world without violent conflict is possible, practical and essential for U.S. and global security.

7. Carnegie Endowment for International Peace: <https://carnegieendowment.org/> In a complex, changing, and increasingly contested world, the Carnegie Endowment generates strategic ideas and independent analysis, supports diplomacy, and trains the next generation of international scholar-practitioners to help countries and institutions take on the most difficult global problems and safeguard peace.

8. Stockholm International Peace Research Institute: <https://www.sipri.org/> SIPRI's vision is a world in which sources of insecurity are identified and understood, conflicts are prevented or resolved, and peace is sustained.

9. The Peace Research Institute Oslo: <https://www.prio.org/> The Peace Research Institute Oslo (PRIO) conducts research on the conditions for peaceful relations between states, groups and people.

10. Georgetown University: Think tanks & NGO's, Conflict Resolution: <https://guides.library.georgetown.edu/Conflict/policy>. Resources for research in conflict resolution, peace operations, armed conflict, and human security.

11. Global Public Policy Institute: <https://gppi.net/issue-area/peace-security> We seek to understand atrocities and the politics of the use of force at all levels, from the local to the global. We investigate how to better anticipate, prevent and stop organized violence, and how outsiders might help rebuild order and peace.

12. Smart Peace: Chatham House-International Affairs Think Tank: <https://www.chathamhouse.org/about-us/our-departments/international-security-programme/smart-peace>

13. Global Exchange: <https://globalexchange.org/> Global Exchange is an international human rights organization dedicated to promoting social, economic and environmental justice around the world. We take a holistic approach to creating change and as an education and action resource center, we advance our vision by working to ensure our members and constituents are empowered locally and connected globally to create a just and sustainable world.

14. European Institute of Peace: <https://www.eip.org/> The European Institute of Peace designs and delivers sustainable peace processes and agreements. We provide practical experience, technical expertise and policy advice on conflict resolution.

15. International Peace Bureau: <https://www.facebook.com/ipb1910/> Envisioning A World Without War. IPB's mission is to create a world without war and with a positive peace, in which conflicts are resolved by non-military and non-violent means.

16. <https://www.nonviolenceinternational.net/> Nonviolence International advocates for active nonviolence and supports creative constructive nonviolent campaigns worldwide.

17. International Center on Nonviolent Conflict. <https://www.nonviolent-conflict.org> ICNC focuses on how ordinary people wage nonviolent conflict to win rights, freedom and justice.

18. Metta Center for Nonviolence: <https://wagingnonviolence.org/metta/>. We encourage people in all walks of life to discover their innate capacity for nonviolence and to cultivate its power for the long-term transformation of themselves and the world, focusing on the root causes of dehumanization and ultimately all forms of violence.

