

The Human Right to a Livable and Just World

Sat Nov 11, 9 am – 12:30 pm Pacific time, Zoom

Western Washington Fellowship of Reconciliation's 2023 Fall Gathering*

Our program will include:

PRESENTATIONS

- “Youth Panel on Climate Issues” - panelists from WWFOR's Mike Yarrow Peace Fellows Program and the Thurston Youth Climate Coalition, moderated by Sarah Pham
- “Held v. Montana: A Discussion of the Historic Youth Climate Win,” Melissa Hornbein, a Senior Attorney with the Western Environmental Law Center (WELC)
- Poor People's Campaign on “ Effects of the War Economy and Ecological Devastation on the Poor” – speaker to be announced

WORKSHOPS

- Climate Change, War on Civilians, War on the Earth presented by Jim Janko who works with the Veterans for Peace (VFP) nationwide Climate Crisis & Militarism Project. Jim will include examples from the war in Gaza/Israel in his presentation.
- Coalition Building for a Just Transition to Environmental and Economic Justice presented by Aurora Martin, Co-Executive Director of Front and Centered. Front and Centered is a coalition of communities of color, people with lower incomes, and Indigenous peoples on the frontlines of environmental and economic justice.

YOUTH ACTIVIST PRESENTATION. Introduction to WWFOR's Mike Yarrow Peace Fellows Program by Sarah Pham with several current MYPF students describing their projects for the school year

MORE INFO <https://wwfor.org/2023-wwfor-fall-retreat/> INQUIRIES TO gantj_750@msn.com or WWFOR at 206-789-5565 or wwfor@wwfor.org

Suggested registration donation $25 general, $10 low income and students.

REGISTRATION: <https://wwfor2023fr.brownpapertickets.com/> .

EVERYONE IS WELCOME regardless of ability to pay!

Event a.k.a. Fall Retreat*