New Israel Fund presents Raghad Jaraisy, Co-Executive Director of Sikkuy-Aufoq. At Sikkuy-Aufoq—one of the country's leading organizations promoting equality and inclusion—she is helping shape a more just and democratic society. Raghad will share insights into her work, including the urgent challenges she faces, such as U.S. funding cuts and harmful new legislation, as well as the opportunities she sees for meaningful progress.

Co-sponsored by Congregation Beth Shalom, Temple Beth Am, J Street, and Kavana Cooperative.

Note: we do not know the views of all the sponsors, but J-Street is still supporting US aid to Israel, which we think is contrary to achieving peace.

UNARMED CIVILIAN DEFENSE COURSE

May 12 – June 22, 100% Online (self-paced modules + optional live sessions)

This World Beyond War course addresses a key challenge facing the peace and anti-war movement — and the global community more broadly: What should unarmed civilians do when militaries attack or occupy their communities? What alternative do they have but to fight back with violence? The ideal response is to prevent such situations from arising in the first place. But in today’s increasingly militarized world — and given the urgency of this question in the struggle for mutual survival — what meaningful alternatives can peacebuilders offer?

This six-week online course offers one such alternative: a comprehensive introduction to Unarmed Civilian Defense (UCD) — a people-powered approach to protecting communities and resisting violence without weapons. It explores how UCD can be used to resist military force, invasion, occupation, dictatorship, and war. Through real-world case studies, conceptual frameworks, practical tools, and shared learning with a globally diverse cohort of peers and facilitators, participants will gain a strong foundation in the theory and practice of nonviolent alternatives to war.

Cost sliding scale from $25 to $100 or more. More info and registration <https://worldbeyondwar.org/unarmed-civilian-defense-online-course/>

WWFOR SPRING ASSEMBLY

“STRENGTHENING OUR NONVIOLENT MOVEMENT IN THIS TIME OF CHAOS”

Sat May 17, 9 am to 12 noon Pacific time, Zoom

In the current political and societal turmoil, all of us are affected in many ways. We may feel powerlessness, grief, or rage – or all of these in turns. These are understandable reactions to what some have termed an administrative coup by the Trump Administration. Yet we may also feel hope and community as we resist injustice and cruelty. Together, let us consider what kind of nonviolent actions are most effective when our democratic norms and processes are being trampled.

This year’s Spring Assembly Keynote Speaker will be Dr. Stephen Zunes, Professor of Political and International Studies at the University of San Francisco. He is a renowned international relations scholar specializing on the Middle East, U.S. foreign policy, and strategic nonviolence. We encourage you to join us for what is bound to be a stimulating and rich learning experience.

We will also have a panel with participation from seven of the Mike Yarrow Peace Fellows. They are youth aged 14 to 23 who have taken on individual activist projects with training in nonviolence and mentorship provided by WWFOR.

Suggested $0-20 donation. All welcome regardless of ability to pay.

SOAW MIGRANT TRAIL PILGRIMAGE

May 26 – June 1, , Sonora & Arizona

We invite you to join the School of the Americas (SOA) Watch delegation this summer as we walk the 22nd annual Migrant Trail, a 75-mile pilgrimage from Sasabe, Sonora, to Tucson, Arizona.

The Migrant Trail Walk is a powerful testament to the human cost of U.S. immigration policies and militarized border enforcement. By walking, we remember and honor the countless lives lost in the desert and commit to collective action for justice.

Migrant Trail Vision: The precarious reality of our borderlands calls us to walk. We are a spiritually diverse, multi-cultural group who walk together on a journey of peace to remember people, friends and family who have died, others who have crossed, and people who continue to come. We bear witness to the tragedy of death and of the inhumanity in our midst. Lastly, we make this sacred journey as a community, in defiance of the borders that attempt to divide us, committed to working together for the human dignity of all peoples.

FILM ABOUT ISRAELI-PALESTINIAN COMBATANTS FOR PEACE

Sat May 31, 7:30 pm, at SIFF Cinema Uptown, 511 Queen Anne Ave N, Seattle, WA 98109

There is Another Way: A Film About Bridging Divides in Palestine and Israel

There is Another Way tells the story of a group of visionaries who refuse to surrender to violence and injustice, and in doing so show that another path is possible - for them, for us, and for all humanity. As we are all faced with essential questions about who we are, will we choose collective liberation, where the needs, rights, and safety of all are prioritized - in which our humanity comes first, knowing that no one is free until everyone is free.

Combatants for Peace, nominated for two Nobel Peace Prizes, is an extraordinary bi-national group of former enemy combatants - Israelis and Palestinians - working together during an ongoing armed conflict. Faced with the devastation and escalating violence of October 7th and the war in Gaza, the very core of the movement must face great challenges and show that there is another way. The first question they have to face is their own belief...is this possible?

MEANINGFUL MOVIES PERSISTS!

Ongoing, various dates. Now online, in person, and hybrid events.

The Meaningful Movies Project started in 2003 as a project of Wallingford (Seattle) Neighbors for Peace and Justice, a neighborhood affiliate of SNOW (Sound Nonviolent Opponents of War) with free weekly showings of films with social meaning, followed by discussion. Other neighborhood groups all over Washington State and beyond joined in this project with film viewings in their neighborhoods. See a list of these groups <https://meaningfulmovies.org/events/locations/>

The pandemic motivated the project participants to convert to online formats which continue, along with a partial return to in-person events. See <https://meaningfulmovies.org/events/> for scheduled films.

MMP films and discussions, in person or online, are free, but donations are needed and gratefully accepted at <https://meaningfulmovies.org/donate/> or at Meaningful Movies Project, P.O. Box 31005, Seattle, WA 98103
