

Strengthening Our Nonviolent Movement in This Time of Chaos

Everyone is welcome to join Western Washington Fellowship of Reconciliation's Spring Assembly.

Saturday, May 17, 2025
9 am to noon Pacific time Zoom

What kind of nonviolent actions can be effective at a time like this when so many of our democratic norms and processes are being ripped asunder?

Keynote Speaker Dr. Stephen Zunes, will speak on “Authoritarianism and Resistance: What the World Can Teach Us.” Stephen is a Professor of Politics and Global Studies at the University of San Francisco, where he serves as coordinator of Middle Eastern Studies and the incoming director of USF's Institute for Nonviolence and Social Justice. He is a renowned scholar specializing in U.S. foreign policy, pro-democracy struggles, and strategic nonviolent action.

The assembly will include music, discussion groups, and brief presentations by 7 youth activists from our 2024-2025 Mike Yarrow Peace Fellows cohort.

Youth Activists Oona, Naman, Sai (Moukthika), Kayla, Zachary, Rowan, Brianna
