FOR FELLOWSHIP OF RECONCILIATION
— WESTERN WASHINGTON —

Greetings from the Mike Yarrow Peace Fellowship

- + Are you between the ages of 14-23 and wanting to work for social justice?
- + Are you inspired by the current upsurge in youth activism?
- + Would you be interested in applying for a $500 grant for organizing a social justice project in your school or community?

If so, please consider applying NOW for a 2026-27 Mike Yarrow Peace Fellowship (MYPF). You can access the online application here: <https://wwfor.org/mike-yarrow-peace-fellowship-4/>

The Mike Yarrow Peace Fellowship (MYPF) is a program that includes a 3 day Nonviolence training, a Fellowship grant of $500 to work on a nonviolent social change project of your choice, and the opportunity to network with other youth activists. The MYPF program recruits and trains selected high school and college age youth in the theory and practice of active nonviolence on issues of peace, climate, and social justice in the traditions of Martin Luther King and Mahatma Gandhi.

An intensive virtual training in Nonviolent Action will take place on the 2026 Labor Day weekend (September 5-7, 2026). Participants will then plan and carry out a project in their school or community from September 2026 until April 15, 2027. Mentors, additional resources, and/or continued training may be available throughout the program year.

This year we are giving priority to activists interested in:

Saving Democracy, Anti-Militarism, Climate Justice, Nuclear Weapons Abolition, and Social Justice Issues.

You can access more information here: <https://wwfor.org/> about the Western Washington Fellowship of Reconciliation, which began and has sponsored the MYPF program since 2000.

ONLINE APPLICATIONS ARE DUE JUNE 30 FOR THE 2026-2027 Mike Yarrow Peace Fellowship
