

Fellowship of Reconciliation
55th Pacific Northwest Regional Seabeck Conference

July 4 - July 7, 2013

Harnessing Outrage and Compassion:
Awakening the POWER of NonViolence

Keynote Speakers

Kazu Haga: Bay Area coordinator for Positive Peace Warrior Network where he offers Kingian nonviolence trainings to prisoners, youth, and community activists, founding member of Communities United for Restorative Youth Justice

Rabbi Lynn Gottlieb: author, storyteller, activist, co-founder of Muslim-Jewish Peacewalk, co-coordinator of FOR's Interfaith Peacewalks, Mural Arts in Palestine Delegations and Young, Pacifist, and Proud

Kaeley Pruitt-Hamm: FOR National Council member, Kingian Nonviolence Trainer, Seattle Chapter Coordinator of CISPES, artist activist with Student Debt Noise Brigade

Come join us for three days of work and fun as we explore the power of nonviolence—how it can be used to harness our outrage at injustice and express our compassion toward all. Enjoy workshops, keynotes, music, fun, and fellowship in the beautiful natural setting of Seabeck Conference Center on Hood Canal with the Olympic Mountains as backdrop. Leave with renewed commitment and insights to continue our work.
